Industry Leaders in Product Safety

Ringmasters is committed to providing high quality, reasonably priced and safe products to our customers. We are proud to say our products are tested and certified.

⚠ Choking Hazard

This symbol denotes products that are considered a choking hazard under the Federal Hazardous Substances Act. This applies to products intended for children 3-6 years old, and which contain any component that is within certain size parameters. You will find corresponding warnings on Ringmasters packaging as required by law.

✔ Compliance

This symbol designates children's products which meet or exceed the federal guidelines set by the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act, including lead content, phthalates content, ASTM F963, and others. All Ringmasters children's products have certificates of compliance available on our website, www.ringmastersonline.com.

Our packaging conforms to CPSIA and FHSA standards
